FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Stocks Weak and Generally Lower-The Market Feverish.

GOLD 115 1-4.

WEDNESDAY, May 5-6 P. M. The stock market to-day acted in a manner that was not calculated to elicit the confidence of either bulls or bears. A decline in Union Pacific and Western Union, a temporary and not important gain in Lake Shore and Erie, attended by reaction, a steadiness in Wabash that by some was regarded as purely artificial, and made merely for the purpose of marketing the stock-these were among the leading incidents of speculation which collectively forbid anything like a correct diagnosie. A review of prices shows that they were nearly all sympathetically weak and irregular.

THE RANGE OF PRICES to-day requires but little description. The only seourity that showed prompt strength at the opening and general firmness throughout the day was the new District of Columbia three-sixty-five bond which opened at 74% and advanced to 75%. Subsequently there was a reaction incident to realization on the part of those who, having purchased at 70, were content with the profits, and a close at 74% a 74%. The sales amounted to about 874,000. Western Union sold at 80% and down to 79, the closing price. Erie moved up from 29% to 30%, but ended at the opening figure. Wabash advanced from 12% to 13, and closed at 12%. Lake Shore sold up to 71% and closed at 70%. Northwest changed from 41% to 41% a 41%. Hannibal and St. Joseph fell off to 24%. St. Paul closed at 37. Pacific Mail was without feature between 44% and 44. Union Pacific opened at 76% and sold down to 75, the closing price. Other prices will be found below.

COMMERCIAL REPORT.

SPOT COTTON FIRM-FLOUR FAIRLY ACTIVE-WHEAT FIRMER—CORN EASIER—OATS FIRMER—BARLEY QUIET—RYE QUIET—PORK HIGHER— LARD IRREGULAR—PETROLEUM DULL—NAVAL STORES QUIET—WHIRERY STRADY—GROCERIES GENERALLY QUIET AND FIRM.

WEDNESDAY, May 5-6 P. M. There was no improvement worth mentioning in any department of trade to-day, the markets being all but universally dull and irregular. Prices constantly fluctuate, showing the unsettled condition of trade and the uncertainty and distrust existing among business men with regard to the near future. On 'Change business continued to be circumscribed within the narrowest possible limits. Flour was in better demand and dearer for snipping grades. Wheat was quiet but firm. Corn was easier, but closed steadier. Oats firm Whiskey was firm. Pork was tregular; sold higher but closed easy. Lard was also irregular; opened lower but sold higher. Freights were quiet and nearly sominal. Cotton on the spot was fairly active: futures quiet. Groceries quiet and firm. Petroleum dull. Naval stores quiet.

duil. Naval stores quiet.

Corrox.—After 'Change spinners purchased 500 bales in addition to the sales below reported. There was no export demand to relieve the market from the pressure brought to bear by continued large offeriors, and the tendency of values was docudedly in the direction of lower figures, as shown both by the prices at which seliers were willing to 20 on and by the reinsal of buyers to make reasonable bids, some lots were hid for by exporters, but the prices offered were in most cases 3/c, a 3/c, under quotations, which, as they are, show a decline of 3/c, from the rates anoted yeared as a distance of 3/c, from the rates anoted yeared as Patures continued on the decline, and further receded 3/c, closing quiet at the following quotations—May, 15 77-7c, a 15/4c; june, 15 29-3c, a 15-16.
